Dear Rebecca,

ASE Surgical Education Research Scholarship and Educator of Merit Awards

We wish to inform you that the ASE Surgical Education Research Scholarship is now accepting applications until 15 April 2019. This scholarship has been established to encourage surgeons to conduct research into the efficacy of existing surgical education or innovation of new surgical education practices and is worth $10,000. For more information and how to apply, please visit <https://bit.ly/2SLTDQ8>. This is an excellent opportunity for RACS members to pursue their interest in surgical education research.

Also, the ASE Educator of Merit Awards (part of the ASE Recognition Awards series) will be accepting nominations for the categories below from 25 March – 10 May 2019. The ASE Recognition Awards have been created to acknowledge and reward surgical educators across Australasia. Further information on the categories and judging criteria can be found in <https://bit.ly/2IW7bJj>. Nominations can be submitted to ase@surgeons.org together with other information such as supporting reason for the nomination, name and contact details of seconder.

- SET Supervisor/IMG Supervisor of the Year
- Facilitator/ Instructor of the Year

We would appreciate it if the Board can disseminate this information to your wider membership.

Thank you.

Yours sincerely

Dr Sally Langley
